EVENT INSURANCE

SPECIALTY LINES

OVERVIEW:

When organizing events such as corporate conferences, seminars, live concerts, award ceremonies, school or college functions, weddings, or sports events like cricket, hockey, or kabaddi, it's crucial to have the right event insurance in place. TATA AIG's event insurance provides coverage to protect your event from unexpected incidents, helping safeguard your business against potential losses.

This product comprises of seven broad coverage sections mentioned as follows:

1. Event Cancellation
2. Material damage
3. Public Liability and Litigation Expenses
4. Personal Accident
5. Money
6. Travel Protection
7. Exhibition

1) Event Cancellation:

This section covers financial losses incurred due to event cancellations caused by government bans, civil unrest, non-availability of essential equipment, technological failures, or natural disasters like storms and earthquakes. It also protects against the absence of key individuals due to death, injury, illness, or transportation breakdown. Additionally, it includes coverage for risks such as fire, riots, and theft, ensuring comprehensive protection against unforeseen circumstances.

2) Material damage:SECTION 2.1 – Props, Sets, Stage, Seats, Equipment, Studio, Costume/ wardrobe etc.

This section provides coverage for direct physical loss or damage to sets, costumes, props, and related equipment used for the insured event. It covers assets owned, rented, or leased by the insured while at the event venue or in transit, protecting against risks such as fire, natural disasters, riots, theft, and terrorism.

SECTION 2.2 – Material damage to tapes/negatives

This coverage protects against loss or damage to Digi-Beta tapes used for recording the insured event due to physical or external risks. It applies while the tapes are stored with the insured or in transit, including when carried as part of the insured's baggage during travel.

3) Public Liability and Litigation Expenses:

This section provides coverage for the insured's legal liability towards third parties for accidents causing injury or damage at the insured event venue. It covers claims made during the policy period, compensating for third-party costs, fees, and expenses under Indian law, excluding liabilities under the Public Liability Insurance Act, 1991 or similar statutes.

4) Personal Accident:

This section provides compensation for insured individuals in the event of accidental death, dismemberment, or permanent disability. The coverage includes 100% of the Sum Insured for accidental death or severe injuries like loss of both eyes, hands, or feet, and partial payouts for partial disabilities. Additionally, it covers expenses for transporting the insured's body in the event of accidental death.

5) Money:

This section provides coverage for loss of money due to robbery, theft, or other unforeseen causes. It covers losses during transit by the insured or authorized personnel, from safes or strong rooms on the insured premises, and from the cash counter during business hours, up to the limits specified in the policy schedule.

6) Travel Protection:

This section covers various travel-related risks during an event, including loss of personal baggage, passport, or documents, missed connecting flights, and trip cancellations. It also provides protection for flight delays, emergency medical or accidental treatment, and evacuation during the trip. Additionally, it offers coverage for plane hijack situations and home protection against burglary while the insured is away, up to the specified Sum Insured.

7) Exhibition:

This section covers accidental loss or damage to insured property owned or entrusted to the insured for an exhibition event. It protects against unforeseen physical loss during transit and while stored, displayed, or sold at the exhibition venue, up to the specified limit in the policy schedule.

POLICY EXCLUSIONS:

- Loss or damage from war, civil unrest, military action, or government seizure.
- Loss or damage caused by ionizing radiation or radioactive contamination.
- Loss or damage due to the insured's wilful misconduct.
- Loss or damage resulting from fraud.
- Loss or damage related to circumstances known to the insured before the policy began.
- Claims arising outside the geographical limits specified in the policy.
- Diseases declared by the WHO as a global health emergency or pandemic.
